From the Secretarial Desk

Dear Colleagues,

Greetings from the secretariat.

It has been already six months since the secretariat has shifted to Bengaluru. The transition of the secretariat is now complete.

We have ten more new members in the last six months. We welcome all the new members. It is time to increase our membership.

We request all the members of our society to actively encourage the membership.

The ISNACC neuroanaesthesia PDF course is going well. The re-accreditation of all the five institutes finishing three years of the PDF course is in the process. The inspections of these institutes have been completed. The exit examination of this year PDF candidates will be conducted in AIIMS, New Delhi in the month of Jan 2016. Another important task is revamping of the various committees' for the next three years. The committees are education and research committee, constitutional committee, scientific committee and finance committee. People with the right credentials can propose their names. Any suggestions to improve the society are always welcome.

The preparation for the conference at Bengaluru is going in full steam. A three member SNACC panel is attending the conference. The immediate past president of NASGBI is also attending the conference. Now, the NASGBI has been renamed as Neuroanaesthesia and Critical Care Society of Great Britain and Ireland (NACCSGBI). We have received an official communication to that effect. There will be an ENLS (Emergency Neurological Life Support) workshop in this conference as a preconference workshop. The workshop will be accredited by the Neurocritical care society, USA. The details will be available on the website soon.

With Warm Regards,

Dr V J Ramesh

Report of the NASGBI ASM 2015, Manchester

The 50th Annual Scientific Meeting 2015 of the Neuroanaesthesia Society of Great Britain and Ireland was held at Hotel Hilton, Manchester, United Kingdom on 07th and 08th May 2015. The conference was organized by the Department of Anaesthetics, Royal Hallamshire Hospital, Glossop Road, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals under able leadership of Dr Craig Carroll. The theme was based on the society's objective of "the advancement of education for the public benefit in the science of neuroanaesthesia and neurocritical care". Also the society was rechristened as The Neuroanaesthesia & Critical Care Society of Great Britain and Ireland (NACCS) from NASGBI.

Over a hundred delegates participated; out of which ISNACC members, Dr Mihir Prakash Pandia, Dr Hemanshu Prabhakar, Dr Girija Rath, Dr Bhavna Hooda and Dr Sujoy Banik from AIIMS, New Delhi and Dr Harsh Sapra from Medanta Hospital, Gurgaon, attended the conference.

The event commenced with an Introductory and welcome speech by Dr Craig Carroll, organizing chairperson and Dr Ian Tweedie, NASGBI immediate past president.

First scientific session began with Issues pertaining to Safety in Neuro environment; how similar it is to managing the aerodrome and how tedious can long working hours be in Neuro theatres. This was followed by heated debate on pros and cons of having Specialist Neuro intensive care units.

During the lunch break, there were breakout sessions on how to work in partnership with legal advice clinics, Optimizing cerebral blood flow in Subarachnoid haemorrhage and Neuroradiology for the neuroanaesthetist/ neurointensivist. In addition, there were common simulated adult and paediatric neuro scenarios organized for the benefit of trainees in separate meeting rooms.

Post lunch session dealt with the "Known knowns and Known unknowns of Delayed neurological deficit and Big hitters in neuroanaesthesia / neurocritical care.

Day one concluded with President's reception at Cloud 23 lounge; one of the highest buildings with unparalleled view of the city of Manchester. This was followed by a musical evening and Gala dinner at the Deansgate Suite, Hilton.

Day 2 of the meeting began with exuberant talk by paediatric neurosurgeon on paediatric tumour surgery followed by discussion on rescuing the injured brain by Professor Peter Hutchinson, Prof (neurosurgery) from Cambridge University.

Pre lunch session commenced with free paper presentations and poster presentations chaired by Dr Matt Wiles, Research lead of NASGBI council. Post lunch deliberation was by Dame Professor Nancy Rothwell, Vice Chancellor of University of Manchester on Inflammation and Brain Injury: Discovery and treatment.

The meeting concluded with the valedictory function and prize distribution for the Best Oral paper and Poster presentation respectively. Dr Bhavna Hooda was awarded best poster presentation for her research paper titled "Effect of Tranexamic Acid on Intra-operative Blood Loss and Transfusion Requirements in Patients Undergoing Excision of Intracranial Meningioma."

The delegates came forward to share their experiences and suggestions and congratulated the organisers for the academic feast. The organising secretary, on behalf of his team thanked everyone for their active participation during the conference and made official announcement of ASM 2016 at Southampton, UK.
